THE PERFECT UNION OF STEAK, WINE AND RUGBY

Once a ruck has formed players wanting to gather or protect the ball must do so through an area called The Gate.

Enter The Gate restaurant through the private entrance, join friends and enjoy all that this excellent chop-house has to offer.

A flexible and private, chop-house styled hospitality experience at its best and the perfect place to appreciate a combination of quality cuts of meat and fine wines paired to the opposition, together with the passion and pride of international rugby.

THE FUTURE OF ENGLAND RUGBY HOSPITALITY

As the England team runs out onto Twickenham's hallowed turf for the first match in the 2018 Old Mutual Wealth Series, a major transformation will already have kicked off at the Home of England Rugby.

The magnificent new East Stand will be buzzing and all official match day hospitality will be sold and delivered exclusively inside the stadium by England Rugby Hospitality sales specialists supported by long standing partner Keith Prowse.

With seven fabulous facilities, four of which are brand new and exclusive to the redeveloped East Stand, Twickenham match days will combine the ultimate hospitality experience with the hottest tickets in town

The best in modern hospitality will unite with the history and heritage of the stadium and celebrate the sport's values.
